Silent Auction Information

Montana Project Hope will be the recipient of the auction proceeds for the 2022 Convention. The Montana Highway Patrol Hope Project Grants funds hundreds of wishes to children living with critical illnesses every year. The success of the Silent Auction relies directly on all the KC councils participation and generosity. We are asking your Council to please support this great cause by donating an item(s) to the auction. If you would like to pre-register your auction item, please complete the below registration form for each item and return to the address below. Winners will be announced at the Saturday Banquet.
